Human Resources Policy - United States

Vacation Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2025

1. Purpose

This policy outlines vacation leave entitlements and procedures for all employees in the United States.

2. Vacation Entitlement

Full-time employees are entitled to paid vacation leave as follows: Years 0-2: 15 days per calendar year; Years 3-5: 20 days per calendar year; Years 5+: 25 days per calendar year.

3. Accrual and Usage

Vacation is accrued on a monthly basis. Employees must request vacation at least two weeks in advance. Vacation may be carried over to the following year, with a maximum carryover of 5 days.

4. Payment Upon Termination

Upon termination of employment, all accrued but unused vacation will be paid out at the employee's current rate of pay.

This policy is binding and must be followed by all employees.
